Medical Forum Circulation & Readership

Goes to about 5700 medical practitioners - every active GP and Specialist in WA - plus key corporate and government people.

Practising General Practitioners	2,850
Practising Specialists	2,360
Trainees (requested addresses only)	380
Corporations, Govt Bodies, Subs, etc	110

Survey results: 70% of GPs considered the publication their most important information source. Over 90% of GPs and Specialists read Medical Forum each month. It remains highly popular due to editorial independence, full focus on local (WA) issues, and is both informative and entertaining. GPs are twice as likely to browse Medical Forum than the national publication Australian Doctor.

Electronic Version: About 400 doctors have chosen to receive Medical Forum magazine in electronic form via email.
